SOLDOTNA WOMAN SENTENCED TO 6 YEARS IN FEDERAL PRISON FOR HER PART IN CONSPIRACY TO DISTRIBUTE METHAMPHETAMINE

Anchorage, Alaska – Acting United States Attorney Karen L. Loeffler announced that on February 3, 2009, Corina Cunningham, of Soldotna, Alaska, was sentenced in federal court in Anchorage on charges of conspiracy to possess methamphetamine with intent to distribute and possession of methamphetamine with intent to distribute to 72 months incarceration.

Cunningham, age 36, was sentenced by Chief United States District Court Judge John W. Sedwick.

Cunningham was convicted by an Anchorage federal jury in December 2008, for her role in a methamphetamine distribution conspiracy. The total amount of methamphetamine found in her possession was 79 individually-packaged baggies containing 28.9 grams of actual methamphetamine.

Ms. Loeffler commends the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives, the Drug Enforcement Administration and the Alaska State Troopers for conducting the investigation leading to the conviction and sentence of Cunningham.
